Death of Mrs. J. P. Young.

Mrs. Rosa Young, of Richburg, wife of Dr. J. P. Young, died at her home in that town Tuesday afternoon after a short illness. The death was a peculiarly sad one, as Mrs. Young was a young woman in the full prime of womanhood's powers. She was highly cultured and was the possessor of a delightful personality that made her the charm of any circle.

She was the eldest daughter of Judge Ira B. Jones, of Lancaster. In December, 1888, she was married to Dr. Paul Marion, a bright and promising young physician, whose life was cut short after only a few months of married life. Of this union one child, Pauline, now five years of age, was born. About three years ago Mrs. Marion became the wife of Dr. J. P. Young. To them two children were born, the youngest being an infant five months old.

The funeral was conducted at a infant church, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. A. L. Lummus, assisted by Rev. Oliver Johnson. A large concourse of friends and relatives from Lancaster, Richburg and Chester were present to pay their last respects to this bright and attractive young woman.

Pleasant Event In The Country.

Quite a number gathered at the hospital home of Mrs. Lily Molloy Douglas Tuesday afternoon to attend the shower party given by Miss May Lily Cornwall in honor of Miss Annie Lathrie Cassels, who on Wednesday afternoon became the bride of Mr. Henry Hones. A number of handsome presents attested the esteem in which the bride is held. The afternoon was beguiled with several different games and contests, the crowning event of the occasion being the delicious melon, cakes and confections, that Mrs. Hones might have prepared. Indeed to give the occasion a delightfully lasting memory in the minds of all who were privileged to attend. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilkes, Mesdames Levi Wikes and M. J. Young, Misses Elmet Molloy, Sossie Hixon, Anna Molloy, Daisy Colvin, May Kennedy, Gertrude Mayfield, and Messrs. Will, Sam, Stewart and Charlie Cassels, W. B. Molloy, W. J. Irwin, Young Kennedy and Andrew Young.

So FRESH new for linen collars. See each, Saturday, at J. T. Collins.

The B. Y. P. Social. Quite a number of young people gathered at the home of Miss Edna Carroll on Lancaster street last evening for the occasion being the monthly social meeting of the B. Y. P. U. Several contests enlivened the evening's proceedings, the most entertaining being "mish-mish" contests. Each person was presented with a piece of paper on which were inscribed several questions, the answers to which were sought by the contestants.

Miss Edna Carroll allowed herself to be the most skillful in replying to the questions. Delicious refreshments were served.

CHESTER'S LARGEST STORE

OLD FASHIONED BARGAIN SATURDAYS. $1.50 Copyrighted Novels at $1.08.

"Your revival of the good, old fashioned Bargain Saturday has proved to be the quickest and most sweeping success probably ever known in the store history of Chester."

Such was the remark made by a keen minded unsentimental "general merchandise store" veteran, as he walked about the Klutz Big New Store last Saturday and studied the enormous and eagerly buying crowds in every department of your Big New Store.

And yet the crowds were logical; the great volume of buying and selling was as natural as the law which influences the course of a stream seaward.

The Klutz Big New Store offers powerful inducements to the vast shopping public.

OUR SATURDAY BARGAIN DAYS

which Mr. Klutz has decided to conduct for a couple of months—whenever Saturday present a picture of brilliant interest—wholesomely clean and attractive; sparkling with newness, freshness and vivacity. You like it immediately because it is so pleasant, so very cheerful. You like it because the bargains are so bountiful; because you obtain what you want at less than you expected to pay; because you pick up so many surprises in all sorts of things you are more than glad to buy.

This Coming Saturday

We will Offer Thousands of Bargains

Here are some samples of what you will find waiting for you:

Any Ladies' Hat we have left for 14 cents.
